

Informational Rights

All involved students will be provided the following information:

- Privileged and confidential resources as well as information about counselors and advocates
- A plain language explanation of confidentiality and how the request will be weighed
- Options as to how to proceed
- Importance of preserving evidence and resources for where they can access a Sexual Assault Forensic Examiner (SAFE) or sexual assault nurse examiner-adult/adolescent (SANE-A).
- Determination by law enforcement if incident violated criminal law
- Whether office is authorized to offer confidentiality or privacy
- Resources that provide confidentiality versus privacy
- If the accused is an employee, the right to disclose the incident to human resources or to have a confidential or private employee assist in reporting to human resources
- Right to receive assistance from Bank Street in initiating proceedings in family or civil court
- Right to withdraw the complaint or involvement from institutional process at any time
- Information pertaining to public advocacy and awareness events
- Existing and available methods to anonymously disclose
- Institutional crime reporting obligations
- Mental health counseling and medical services (noting whether such resources are available at no cost or for a fee)
- Information regarding sexually transmitted infections and sexual assault forensic examinations (see above)
- Resources available through NYS Office of Victim Services (see link)