Important Dates and Numbers

- Any children's books checked out on or after May 18 are due September 17.
- If you would like to keep any children's books that were checked out before May 18 for the summer, please renew them. Otherwise, please return them by their due dates.
- Kids may have up to 10 books out at a time for the summer. Grown-ups may have up to 25.

7 Ways to make Summer Reading a NON-CHORE!

1 Studies show that kids read more when they see others reading—so make time to read yourself. Curl up with a book, right where your kid can see you.

2 Reading as a leisure activity is the best predictor of comprehension, vocabulary, and reading speed. Remember that “reading” is not just novels; picture books, non-fiction, magazines, comics, and audiobooks all count.

3 Kids often report that they have a hard time finding books that they like. If that happens, have a friend recommend books. Your kids are much more likely to enjoy something recommended by a friend than by a grown-up.

4 Plan regular trips to the library to refresh your reading options. Bank Street Library is open Mon-Thurs 9-9:45; Fri 9-5; Sat 10-5 (August Mon-Fri 9-5). Check out your local public library, too.

5 Visit bookstores for author events and storyhours, and invite friends too! Check bankstreetbooks.com for Bank Street Bookstore’s calendar.

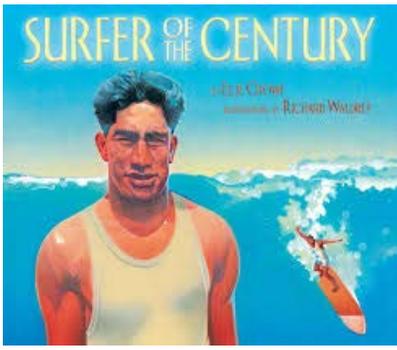

6 Make bookstore visits a treat. Give kids a set amount of money to buy a book or two, and just let it go when they choose The Day My Butt Went Psycho.

7 To understand what your child may be feeling about reading-as-chore, read Summer Reading Is Killing Me (Jon Scieszka) or Moxy Maxwell Does Not Love Stuart Little (Peggy Elizabeth Gifford).
